SWUPHD Quarterly Radio Drill at Cedar City Hospital

by Brad Biedermann WA7HHE

On April 20th, the Rainbow Canyons Amateur Radio Club ECOMM GROUP participated in a combined Five County Hospital and Great Utah Shake Out earthquake drill. Hospitals from Five Southern Utah Counties and Northern Arizona participated in the communication exercise. Hospitals and health departments checked into a UHF/ VHF intertie net. After roll call the net was open to area Damage Assessment reports. Digital Damage Assessment Reports were sent on a separate VHF frequency to the Cedar City Hospital Communication Center. Three NBEMS messages were received and processed to one Voice Damage Assessment Report. Lessons learned revolved around operator training, to provide pauses to prevent linked repeater time outs and the use of phonetics for callsigns. Also the value of Team copy in the Communication Center.

Presentation #1

Terry Lee KD7TTT presented some highlights to the updated website at www.rcarc.info which has been reformatted to better fit on a tablet or cell phone and there is a new online Net Control roster. This online roster will automatically keep track of those that check-in each month and the stations that have the three highest number of check-ins will receive a participation ticket for the give away radio. Your position on the roster list will depend on the number of check-ins you make. There are also many new features added to the website.

Presentation #2

Mike Cartmill AC0PR from St. George gave a powerpoint presentation on SOTA (Summits on the Air). Mike said that SOTA began in England and the website www.sota.org.uk can answer most questions you might have. What is SOTA? "Summits on the Air is an award scheme for radio amateurs and shortwave listeners that encourages portable operation in mountainous areas.”

Basically Utah has 1500 designated summits and is divided into 31 Regions. Each summit has designators and points based on altitude. Also each sota association has different parameters for points allocations, based on the type of terrain in the association. Basically, the higher the summit, the greater the points. Check out www.sotamaps.org to find all the summits in Utah as well as around the world.

If you want to participate you can in two ways: Activator (those who ascend to the summits) or Chasers (who remain in the warmth of their radio shacks!).

Mike showed many photos from many different summits around Utah, Colorado and Nevada. If you are going to be an activator the thing to consider is safety. Some safety factors are the appropriate gear, weather forecast, and don't take chances. It is important to consider what motivates you. Cars are not allowed so it is human power to get you to the summit. This means you have to carry everything, equipment, antennas, power supply, clothing and or camping equipment.

The most popular modes to operate are CW, SSB and FM. 20 meters is the most common band. 30, 40, 17, and 15 meters are also common.

CW frequencies: 7.032, 10.110, 14.061, 18.095

SSB frequencies: 7.185, 14.342, 14.347, 18.150

VHF is often used but no repeater contact allowed.

Some of the most popular equipment are KX2, KX3, FT817, Youkits HB-1B. You want to operate QRP because you will have to carry a battery suitable for the power you want to run.

If you want to know if there is any SOTA stations operating, check www.sotawatch.org. Handouts are available.

Linda asked if anyone had any questions; there was none.

Larry Bell N7SND motioned to adjourn the meeting seconded by Monti Rugebregt KG7WEN. Meeting was adjourned at 8:50 pm.
